HEALTH: Please ensure that you are healthy enough to attend this event. Please do not attend if you have a fever, a new cough, or body aches; or have recently vomited. There are many factors to the risk of the spread of any sickness, and we ask everyone to use common sense in reducing the risk they could extend to others. We appreciate everyone's consideration one of another.

Please list any significant health information we need to know for this event.

DIET: West Branch is not able to accommodate specific diets during this event. Please bring along additional food options for yourself or contact us in advance if you have any questions or concerns.

DRESS: We ask all attending to abide by our dress code:
From its beginning West Branch has encouraged its guests to honor the Lord in appearance. Wholesome standards displaying modesty and distinction between the sexes are intended to be a help and blessing to you.

Ladies Because no special activity dress is needed for this event, skirts or dresses are preferred.

West Branch is a ministry of the Bill Rice Ranch, Murfreesboro, Tennessee.
