HEALTH: Please ensure that you are healthy enough to attend this event. Please do not attend if you have a fever, a new cough, or body aches; or have recently vomited. There are many factors to the risk of the spread of any sickness, and we ask everyone to use common sense in reducing the risk they could extend to others. We appreciate everyone's consideration one of another.

Please list any significant health information we need to know for this event.

DIET: West Branch is not able to accommodate specific diets during this event. If you feel you may not be able to eat a basic pizza and sides meal, please bring along additional food options for yourself.

DRESS: We ask all attending to abide by our dress code:
From its beginning West Branch has encouraged its guests to honor the Lord in appearance. Wholesome standards displaying modesty and distinction between the sexes are intended to be a help and blessing to you.

Boys No shorts. Any other long pants are fine. Neat and clean should be the priority.

Girls No pants, capris or gauchos. Because no special activity dress is needed for this event, skirts or dresses are preferred. Any culottes (or baggy athletic shorts), skirts or dresses should be knee-length and not pant-like.

Leaders: Please pass along dress code information to our group early.

West Branch is a ministry of the Bill Rice Ranch, Murfreesboro, Tennessee.
